Eve,

I am responding on Bryan's behalf to let you know that Penske Media Corp will agree to the stay you requested, subject to the Court's approval. Therefore, the discovery joint stip appears to be moot. Please send the stipulation for stay at your earliest opportunity.

Thanks
Steve

Hi Bryan,

Just checking in re: the six month continuance (inc. discovery and the motion). BTW: we still have not received the stip in the correct format and everyone in New York is dealing with the storm. Accordingly, we will need to push out our response time in any event.

Thanks,
Eve

I actually agreed that the 6 months would be a good idea but that I needed to talk to my client first and will do so. If your side is not agreeing to the language then it would seem prudent to at least resolve our discovery dispute but in any event, I will confirm the 6 months once I speak to my side.

Hi Bryan,

I was surprised to receive this following our call. Either we should be able to get this settled within the next few weeks or not. But, as I thought we both agreed, it doesn't make sense to have both sides' filing and battling counter discovery motions and worrying about an impending discovery cut-off. Moreover, Steve still haven't sent us the revised discovery stip which complies with the rules and our response is due shortly.

My understanding of our call was we were going to push everything out by six months. Please let me know if you disagree.

Thanks,
Eve

Bill,

I spoke with Bryan right after I received your email and he told me that he thought the discovery was important to help settle the case (which is the same thing that I relayed to you the other day after I previously spoke with Bryan).

I will send you a substantively equivalent, slightly re-ordered joint stip shortly.

Hi Steve -

I just confirmed with Eve that Bryan said the motion to compel dates would be pushed as well - perhaps you could touch base with him? I also figured that that was your understanding, as I didn't receive a re-structured joint stip from you. Unfortunately, I'm sitting on a plane that's about to take off. If you need to reach anyone on our side in the next few hours, could you reach out to Eve or to Jeremy?

Thanks,

Bill

As discussed the other day, we believe that getting the discovery at issue in the motion is going to advance settlement negotiations (which is the whole point of requesting the continuance). Therefore, please exclude the motion to compel from the stip.

Thanks
Steve

Dear Steve,

I understand from Eve Wagner that there's agreement to push all deadlines out by six months. We'll send a stip for your review. This of course contemplates that if the court has an issue with the dates in the stip, we would also work out with you a new schedule on the motion to compel.

Regards,

Bill
